LB 399, 259, 719-723

please take their seats so we can proceed with the roll call. Okay, call the roll, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Roll call vote. (See page 212, Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER MARVEL: On a roll call vote, on a Call of the House, all legislators must be in their seats. So the Clerk will hold up the Call until all legislators are in their seats. All legislators must be in their seats. All unauthorized personnel must please leave the floor. Okay, proceed.

CLERK: Roll call continued. 22 ayes, 19 nays on the motion to indefinitely postpone.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The legislation is indefinitely postponed. Senator Haberman asked to raise the Call. The Call is raised. We are now ready to proceed. Do you have anything on the desk, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Yes, I do. Mr. President, new bills, LB 719, read title; LB 720, read title; LB 721, read title; LB 722, read title; LB 723, read title. (See pages 212-214, Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, Education gives notice of an executive session for Monday, January 14 upon adjournment.

Senator Chambers asks unanimous consent to print amendments to the grain embargo resolution in the Legislative Journal.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The next bill on General File is LB 259. Senator Wesely, are you in a position to take up the bill?

SENATOR WESELY: Yes, Mr. Speaker. I have got a kill motion on it.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The Clerk has to read the bill first.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 259, read title. The bill was read on January 15. It was referred to the Public Health and Welfare Committee. It was advanced to General File. There are committee amendments pending, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The Chair recognizes Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Yes, Mr. Speaker, do we have to adopt the committee amendments before the kill motion takes effect? It is Senator Cullan's wish to kill the bill and he is Chairman of the Public Health and Welfare Committee which
